Good Morning Yesterday

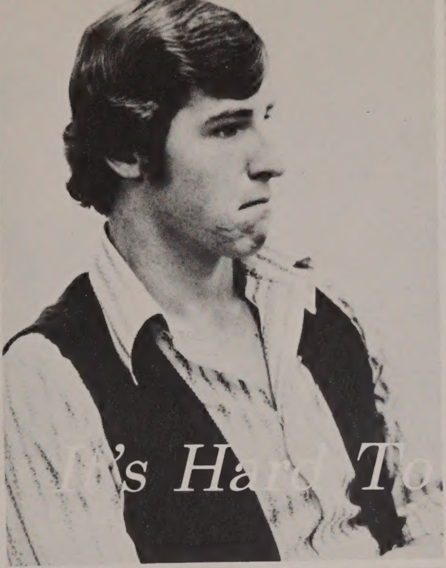
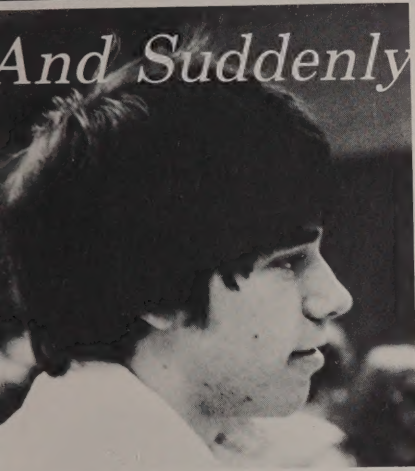
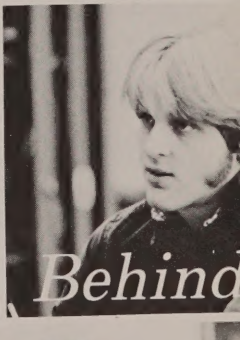
Good Morning Yesterday. . .

You Wake Up And Time Has Slipped Away . . .

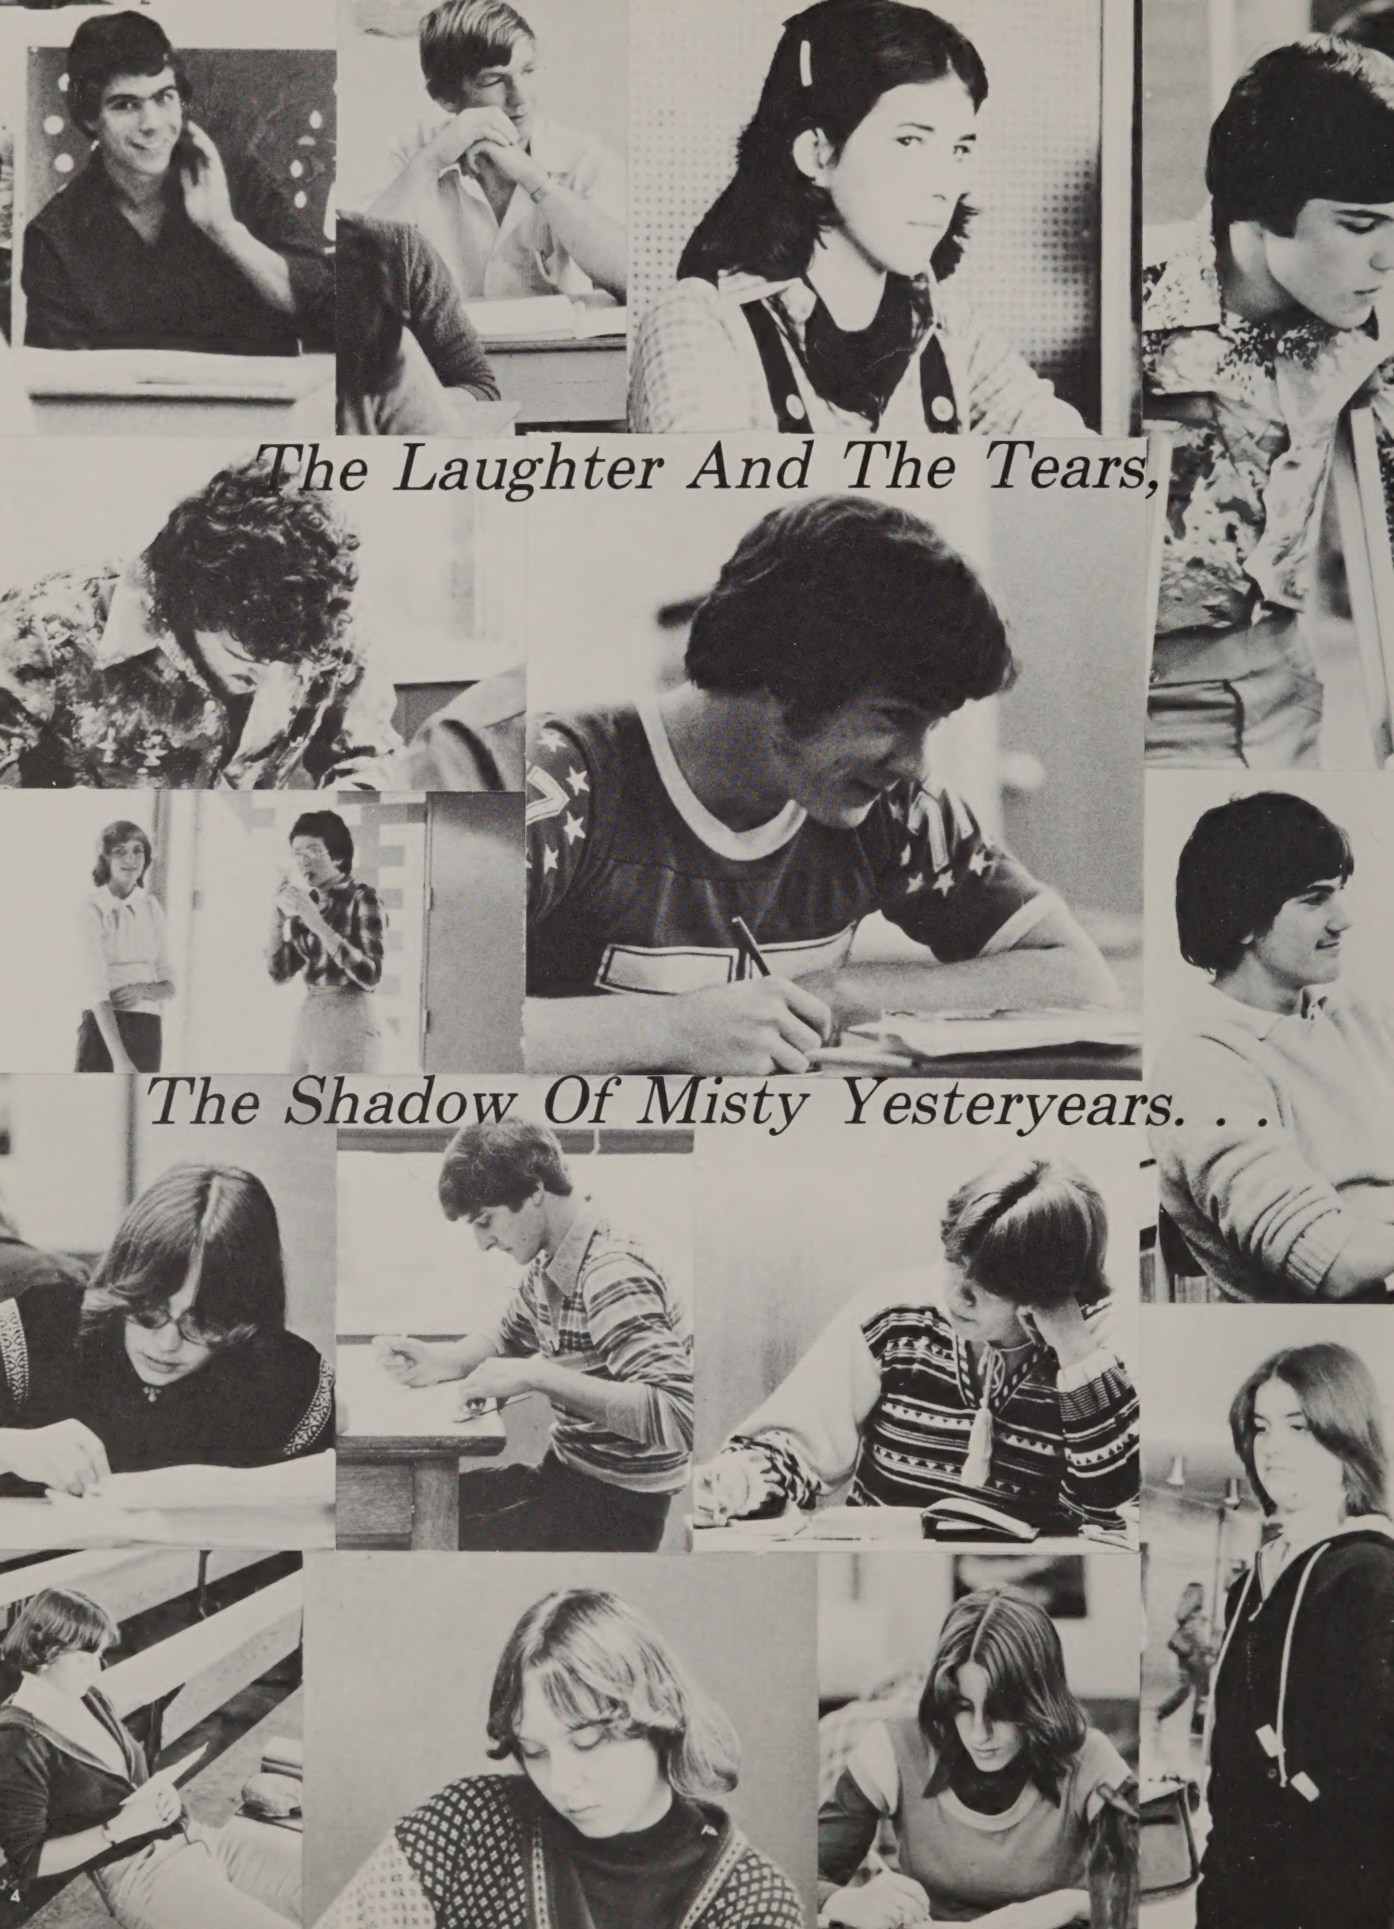


And Suddenly It's Hard To Find





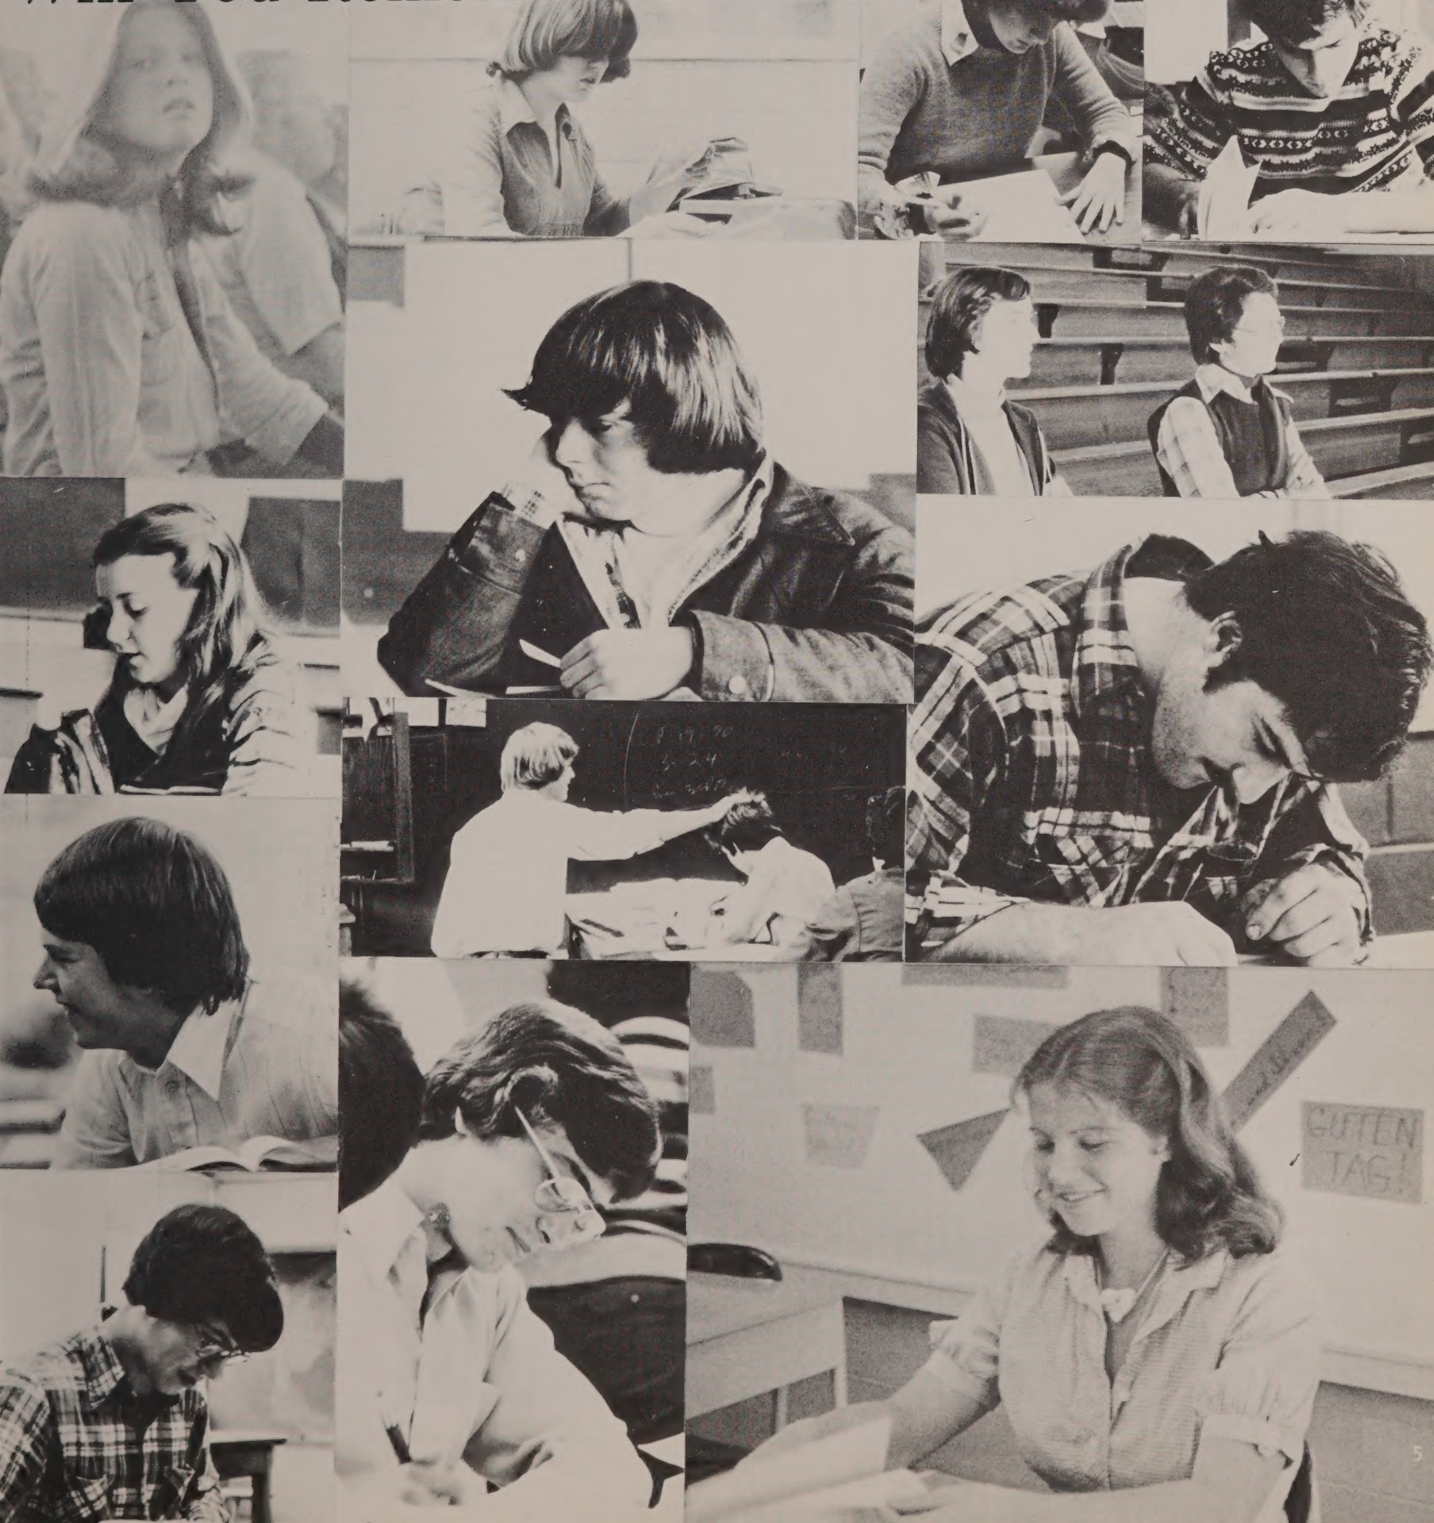
The Memories You Left Behind



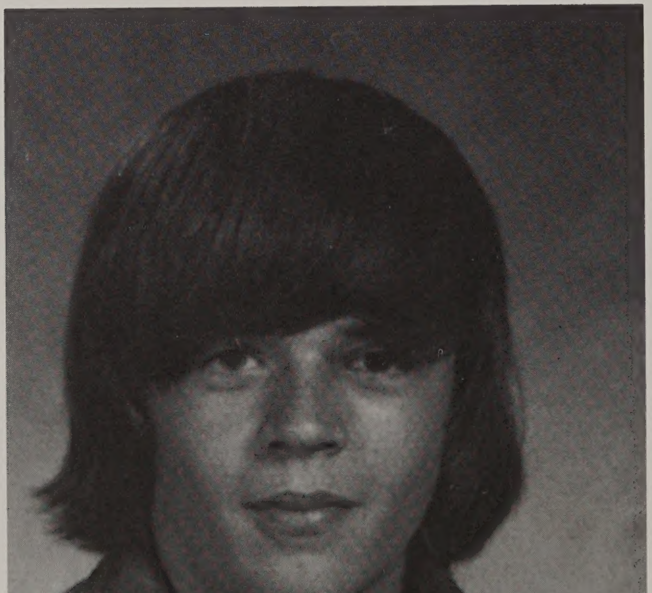
The Laughter And The Tears,

The Shadow Of Misty Yesteryears. . .

Will You Remember The Times Of Your Life?



Dedicated To



Mrs Webster

We shall always hold dear in our hearts our Junior English teacher and Senior Student Advisor. With her great spirit and verve, she united our class in all its efforts. She was always there, ready to offer an understanding ear or a helping hand. She always had our best interests at heart. During our Junior year, she guided our minds and our pens through body language to the intricacies of transcendentalism and Gatsby's T. J. Eckleberg. In our Senior year, she accepted the perilous job of Student Advisor. But most of all she made us feel that she really cared about us.

Phil Swenson

He has contributed his efforts to LHS in many different ways. He has started the photography club with film and developing plus indexed notebooks. He has helped the yearbook out of some deadlines with his photographic equipment. He has given slide shows for the track and football teams. We have seen him as a very emotional LHS sports fan. We all thank him deeply for all the work and support that he has given us.

Paul Nystrom

When he left us and entered the quiet world of a hospital, he left behind his fresh lively spirit. We all remember his funny jokes; how well he can tell them! His wit sparkles, his eyes flashes, and we see recreated before us a world full of laughter. And this gift of joy remains with us everyday. His spirit remains ever youthful and free, and his strength of mind and stamina are to be admired. The will to live and survive is inherent within him. Together with his indomitable spirit and all our hopes and prayers, he will conquer that which is his to conquer.

Considering this and much more, we, the class of 1978, dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Webster, Phil, and Paul.

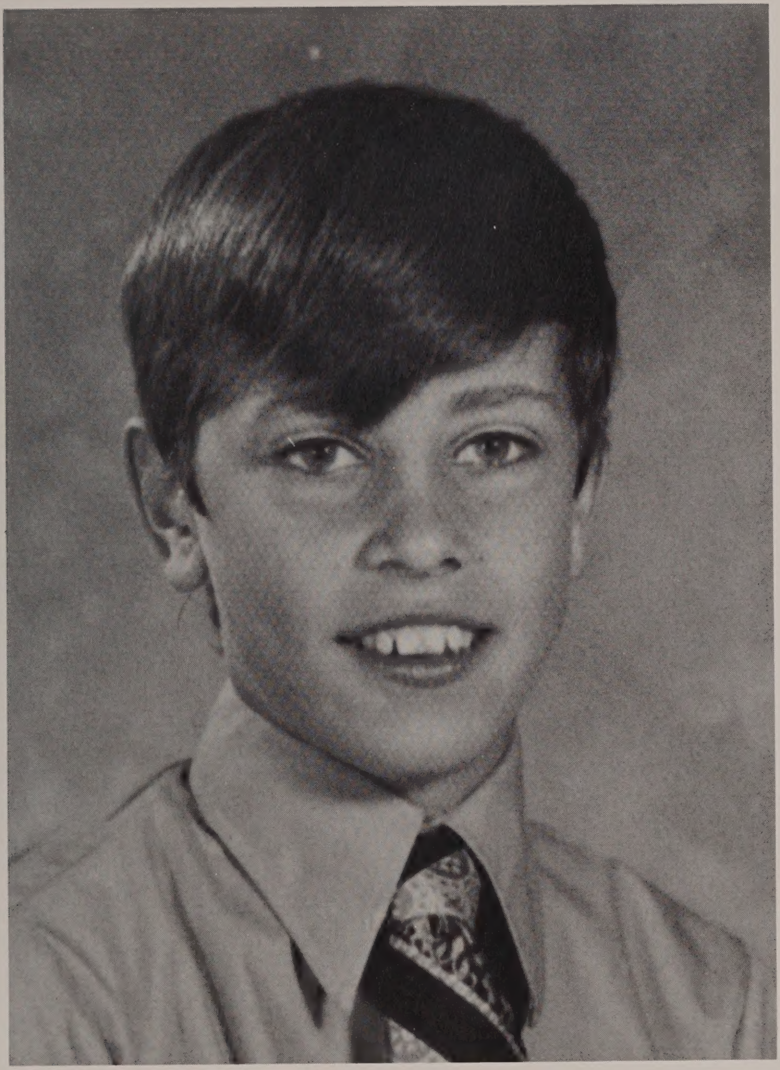
In Memory Of



Paul Devaney

During the tears of our early childhood, we shared the joys of friendship and love with Paul. To many of us he was a true friend and companion, full of the spirit of fun. A desire for laughter and mischief burned deeply in his soul. We shall always treasure the dear memories that he gave us. And we shall never forget the pain and sorrow that claimed our hearts when he left us on that day.

I, Joseph Allen, leave faster than I came with rubber in my parking spot.

I, Debbie Andexler, leave to Pat Sabourin one dozen giant size bags of green M&M's, to Lolly Borda wavelengths from the Hound of Heaven, and to Miss Richardson the memory of that one (lost) ink dot art project.

I, Kathy Baird, leave Jackie, Nerissa, and Susan someone who can dance as well as I . . . Joe K., and R.K. happiness.

I, Irene Banest, leave all my absences to whoever needs an eight week vacation during one term.

I, Ephraim Baron, leave Mr. Hallowell a bouquet of dandelions, and Mr. Webster his wife's shirt which she lost in Las Vegas.

I, James Basnett, leave Dick LaRosee all the girls in the world to melt over.

I, Peri Bell, leave for L.A.-please feel free to drop in anytime.

I, Ken Birse, leave this school more confused than when I entered it.

I, Karin Borda, leave L.H.S. in hopes that everyone will find happiness in life.

I, Renee Boschetto, leave to Mr. Platt my flaming batons to do what he pleases with, to Cindy VanMolle the presidency of the I.B.T.C., great time at Elsie's, and last but not least B.O.

I, Christy Bourassa, leave to marry Randy Partridge and to raise a big family.

I, Jeff Bradbury, leave the wrestling title "Fish" to Tom Purcell . . . Tom carry on with the wrestling tradition.

I, Jim Brigham, leave Mr. Foley's future classes a nickel's worth of No-Doz pills, and to Mr. Foley I leave three years bad luck.

I, Robert Brigham, leave Littleton High with a new spelling for relief: G-R-A-D-U-A-T-I-O-N.

I, Betsy Broughton, leave Terry a solo in chorus, the art supply closet 1/2 full, my warpaint to future artists, and my brother Kent's body.

I, Mandi Bulette, leave Mrs. Beasley all the gum she can chew.

I, Arthur Caiado, leave my best buddies Mendosa.

I, Chris Carmosino, leave a pair of size 13 cleats in blue locker 16 for any unfortunate who can fit into them.

I, E. Chapin, leave my PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHIC ABILITY used on the yearbook to anyone who tries to match it.

I, Lewie Chase, leave many happy football memories to Craig and whoever else wants to keep them going.

I, Marty Christ, leave Raoul Piche a bottle of Afro-Sheen, a babysitter, and a wheelchair.

I, Jeff Cohen, leave Mr. Webster a dozen maps of Worcester for future use in post-season play.

I, John Comeau, leave Paul Glavey, Joel Pruitt, Joey Rowe, Jamie Rowe, and other assorted mushes to suffer the torture of more years at L.H.S.

I, Tim Crory, leave my red sneakers to Dorothy of the WIZARD OF OZ.

I, Julie Debenedictus, leave my Reader's Digest to any underclassman who has to write a short story for English.

I, Elaine Dewey, don't leave anything because I'm too selfish.

I, Joe Donelan, leave with one eye thanks to Mr. Spaulding.

I, Shelley Dupree, leave with one more 1-7073-502 for Henry.

I, Rick Ethier, leave the choo-choo business to my son, Eric Kish.

I, Dave Flight, leave all of Mr. Foley's students a set of earplugs and a can of axle grease to give him for his birthday present.

I, Jim Fowle, leave 9:30 curfew to all future football players to honor, love, and respect.

I, Lisa Forsyth, leave early morning homeroom for the birds.

I, Cheryl Freeman, leave the school quietly and leave Lisa, Sue, Barbie, etc. all those nice names that were given to us.

I, Lori Garland, leave this rotten school and all the rotten kids in it.

I, Angela Gerbi, leave all my books, homework, and teachers to Jeanie Read, and all my teachers my class participation for whenever they need it.

I, Monique Girard, leave to my idol, JoJo White, my front row Algebra seat to fill with another great student, and to Mrs. Beasley her "Alright Monique!"

I, "Goat", leave Jeff Bulette a check for my poker debts guaranteed to bounce.

I, Tim Goddard, leave Mr. Hallowell an analogy about the King and his subjects who go to a dance and eat ham sandwiches while watching a chain reaction of ping-pong balls as they wait for a plane trip to Spain.

I, Irene Grigg, leave a supply of thermal underwear for the band and a piece of rock (salt) to the cafeteria.

I, Madeleine Hackert, leave the art supply closet just the way it is to Miss Richardson because it is worth only 1/2 point and a bar of soap (ph 13) in the teachers' washroom.

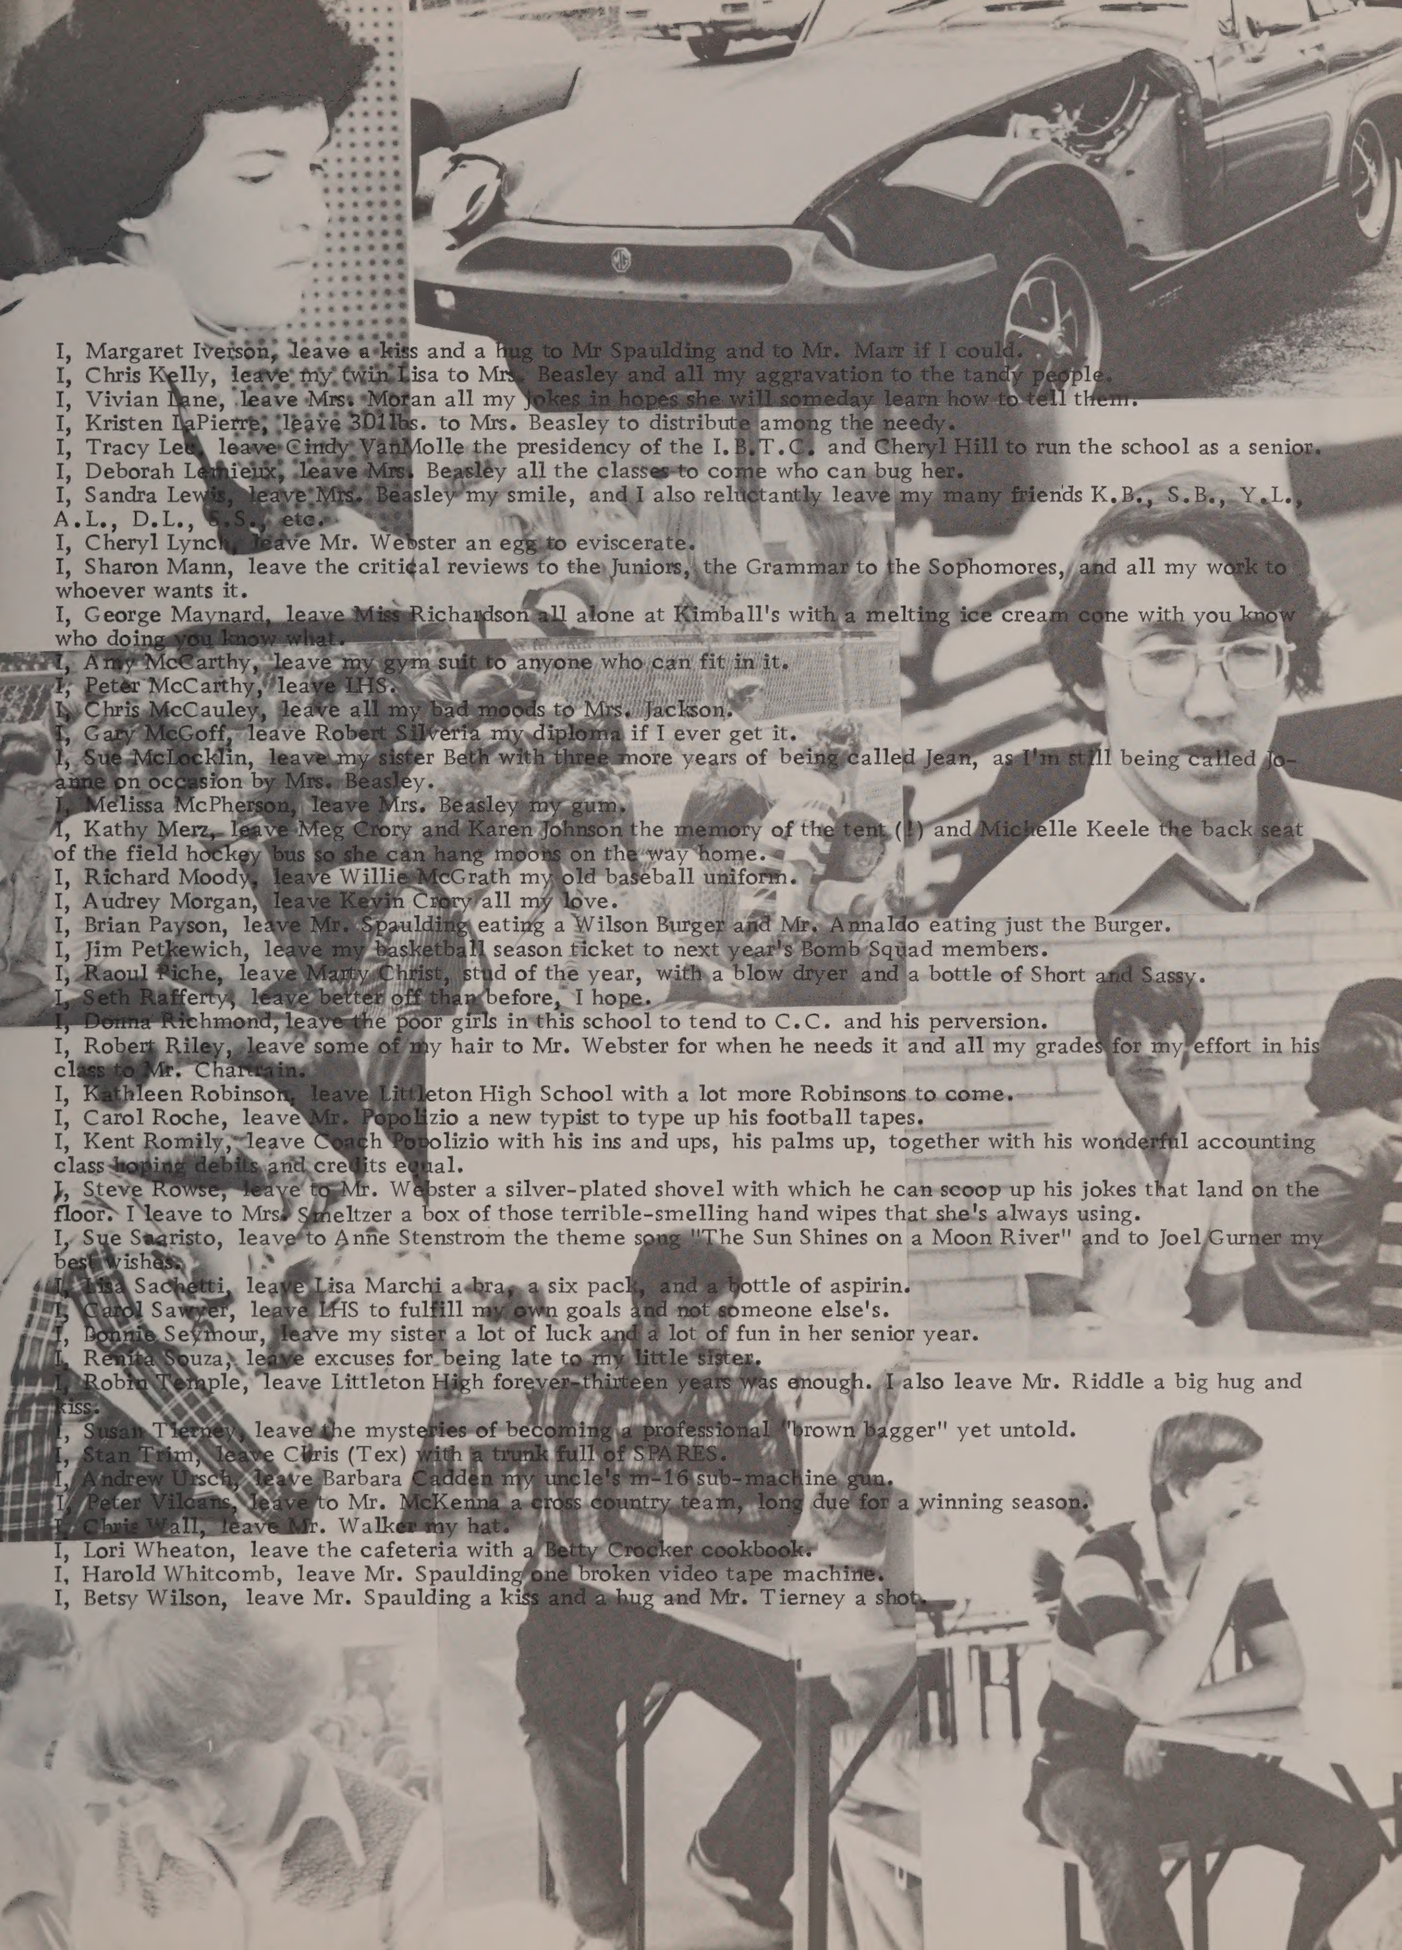
I, Geof Hobart, leave my favorite teacher Clairol's guide to creative hair coloring.

I, Rich Holden, leave Mr. Annaldo all the left over food from the spaghetti supper.

I, John Holmer, leave a $100.00 insurance policy to anyone who is crazy enough to ride with Marty.

I, Harriet Howell, leave LHS to my brothers Chuck and Jerry and my place at the bus stop to anyone who's foolish enough to want it.

I, Mary Iverson, leave a hug and a kiss to Mr. Riddle.



I, Margaret Iverson, leave a kiss and a hug to Mr Spaulding and to Mr. Marr if I could.

I, Chris Kelly, leave my twin Lisa to Mrs. Beasley and all my aggravation to the tandy people.

I, Vivian Lane, leave Mrs. Moran all my jokes in hopes she will someday learn how to tell them.

I, Kristen LaPierre, leave 301lbs. to Mrs. Beasley to distribute among the needy.

I, Tracy Lee, leave Cindy VanMolle the presidency of the I.B.T.C. and Cheryl Hill to run the school as a senior.

I, Deborah Lemieux, leave Mrs. Beasley all the classes to come who can bug her.

I, Sandra Lewis, leave Mrs. Beasley my smile, and I also reluctantly leave my many friends K.B., S.B., Y.L., A.L., D.L., S.S., etc.

I, Cheryl Lynch, leave Mr. Webster an egg to eviscerate.

I, Sharon Mann, leave the critical reviews to the Juniors, the Grammar to the Sophomores, and all my work to whoever wants it.

I, George Maynard, leave Miss Richardson all alone at Kimball's with a melting ice cream cone with you know who doing you know what.

I, Amy McCarthy, leave my gym suit to anyone who can fit in it.

I, Peter McCarthy, leave LHS.

I, Chris McCauley, leave all my bad moods to Mrs. Jackson.

I, Gary McGoff, leave Robert Silveria my diploma if I ever get it.

I, Sue McLocklin, leave my sister Beth with three more years of being called Jean, as I'm still being called Joanne on occasion by Mrs. Beasley.

I, Melissa McPherson, leave Mrs. Beasley my gum.

I, Kathy Merz, leave Meg Crory and Karen Johnson the memory of the tent (!) and Michelle Keele the back seat of the field hockey bus so she can hang moons on the way home.

I, Richard Moody, leave Willie McGrath my old baseball uniform.

I, Audrey Morgan, leave Kevin Crory all my love.

I, Brian Payson, leave Mr. Spaulding eating a Wilson Burger and Mr. Annaldo eating just the Burger.

I, Jim Petkewich, leave my basketball season ticket to next year's Bomb Squad members.

I, Raoul Piche, leave Marty Christ, stud of the year, with a blow dryer and a bottle of Short and Sassy.

I, Seth Rafferty, leave better off than before, I hope.

I, Donna Richmond, leave the poor girls in this school to tend to C.C. and his perversion.

I, Robert Riley, leave some of my hair to Mr. Webster for when he needs it and all my grades for my effort in his class to Mr. Chartrain.

I, Kathleen Robinson, leave Littleton High School with a lot more Robinsons to come.

I, Carol Roche, leave Mr. Popolizio a new typist to type up his football tapes.

I, Kent Romily, leave Coach Popolizio with his ins and ups, his palms up, together with his wonderful accounting class hoping debits and credits equal.

I, Steve Rowse, leave to Mr. Webster a silver-plated shovel with which he can scoop up his jokes that land on the floor. I leave to Mrs. Smeltzer a box of those terrible-smelling hand wipes that she's always using.

I, Sue Saaristo, leave to Anne Stenstrom the theme song "The Sun Shines on a Moon River" and to Joel Gurner my best wishes.

I, Lisa Sachetti, leave Lisa Marchi a bra, a six pack, and a bottle of aspirin.

I, Carol Sawyer, leave LHS to fulfill my own goals and not someone else's.

I, Bonnie Seymour, leave my sister a lot of luck and a lot of fun in her senior year.

I, Renita Souza, leave excuses for being late to my little sister.

I, Robin Temple, leave Littleton High forever-thirteen years was enough. I also leave Mr. Riddle a big hug and kiss.

I, Susan Tierney, leave the mysteries of becoming a professional "brown bagger" yet untold.

I, Stan Trim, leave Chris (Tex) with a trunk full of SPARES.

I, Andrew Ursch, leave Barbara Cadden my uncle's m-16 sub-machine gun.

I, Peter Vilcans, leave to Mr. McKenna a cross country team, long due for a winning season.

I, Chris Wall, leave Mr. Walker my hat.

I, Lori Wheaton, leave the cafeteria with a Betty Crocker cookbook.

I, Harold Whitcomb, leave Mr. Spaulding one broken video tape machine.

I, Betsy Wilson, leave Mr. Spaulding a kiss and a hug and Mr. Tierney a shot.

Our Junior Prom was an enjoyable and memorable occasion because the class made it so. The evening started off with the Grand March and then proceeded on to other anticipated activities. The band was great, and the food was excellent. Shelley Dupree was the queen, and she had a court that included some of the prettiest girls in our class. Almost the whole class attended the Junior Prom. This fact just helped to prove the spirit of togetherness that characterizes all the things our class does. Our class has laughed and cried together, and on the night of Junior Prom we laughed.

"Nice tie, Joe. But I told you to use Elmers."

"But I always eat corn with a knife."

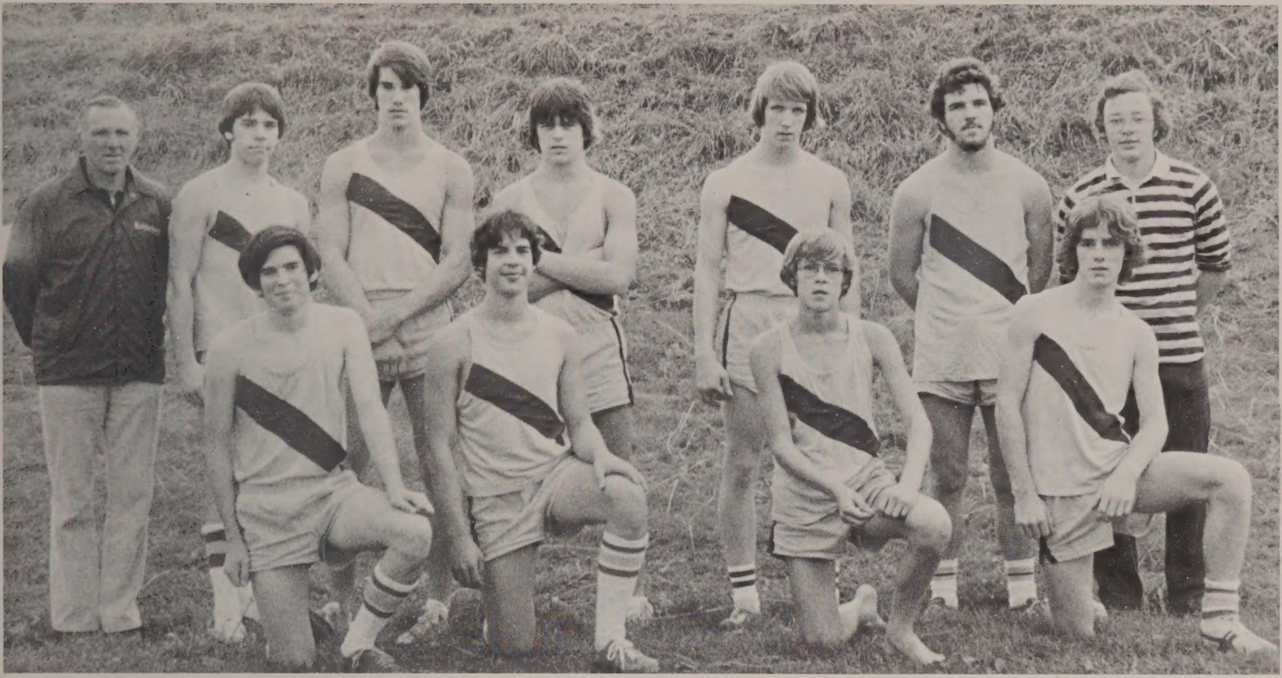
Cross Country



Left to right in back row: E. Baron, K. Dutcher, K. Birse, P. Vilcans, E. Chapin, S. Rowse. Front row: G. Lavallee, S. Medeiros, W. McGrath, V. Gilbert. Coach: Mr. McKenna.

While building their stamina and racing across the countryside, our cross country team did reasonably well. Seniors Ephraim Baron, Kurt Dutcher, Ken Birse, Peter Vilcans, Ed Chapin, and Steve Rowse contributed to the team's overall depth and endurance. The hope is that underclassmen Greg Lavallee, Steve Medeiros, Willie McGrath, and Vincent Gilbert will "take the torch" and help next years team take over where ours left off.

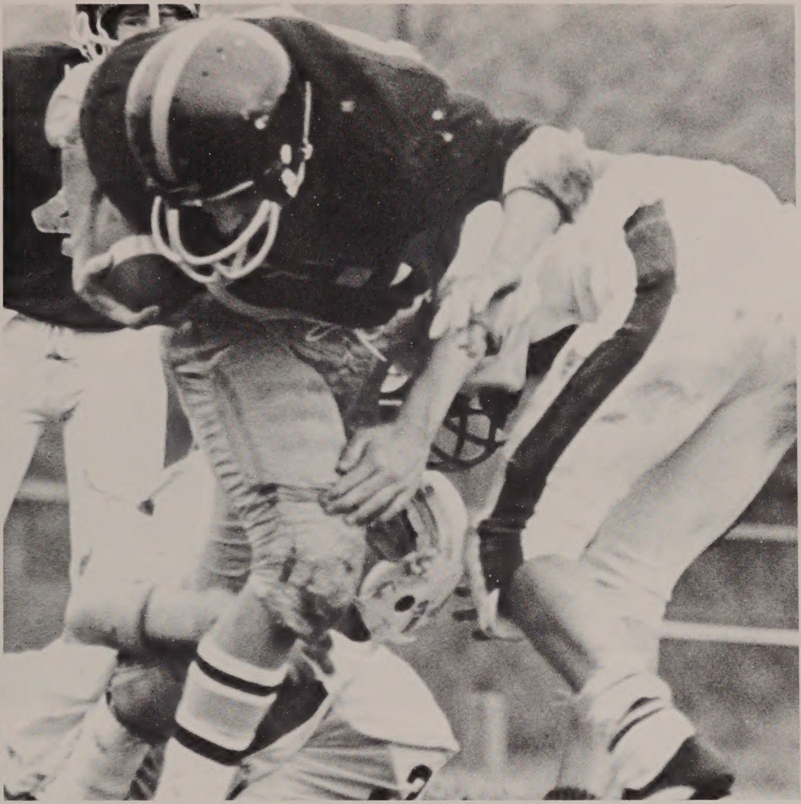
Freshmen Football

"Hey! What do you think you are? A goat?"



"Move over and let me feel. Oh, your skin is so soft!"

The Freshmen Football team had a 4-4-1 record this season, but the team was beset by several injuries to key players. Steve Megee helped to keep up the team's spirits which was prevalent at all their games. Chuck Civetti was the leader of the special teams, sometimes called the bench warmers. Everyone worked hard, including the coaches and the Blue Crush defense. The highlight of the season was their game against Nashoba where many great plays were made. Next year, the team is looking forward a to more improving and successful season.

Last fall, the J.V. field hockey team had an excellent season, as evidenced by the 13-1-0 record. Betsy Scott and Theresa McKenna were the team captains. Theresa was also the top scorer with 15 goals. The bus rides were alot of fun and team spirit followed them throughout their season. Mrs. McManus, their coach, guided them to a successful season, and the team is looking forward to one as equally successful next year.

Varsity Field Hockey

The Varsity field hockey team had one of its better seasons ever as it had a 13-4 record, was third in their league and went to the state championships. Audrey Morgan and Mandi Bulette were the team's co-captains, and Shelley Dupree led the team's scorers. The girls had a lot of fun, and Kathy Merz led in that department with her impressions of Elvis Presley and her singing of "Silva Duck". And the senior girls thank the underclassmen for their song "Both Sides Now."

"Follow the bouncing ball, Monique!"

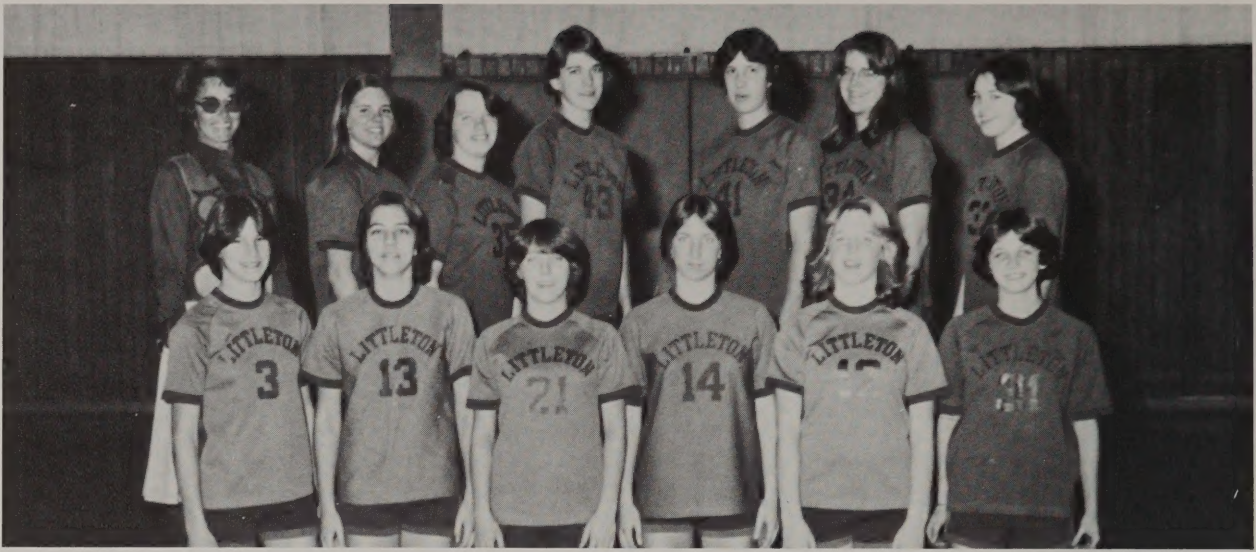
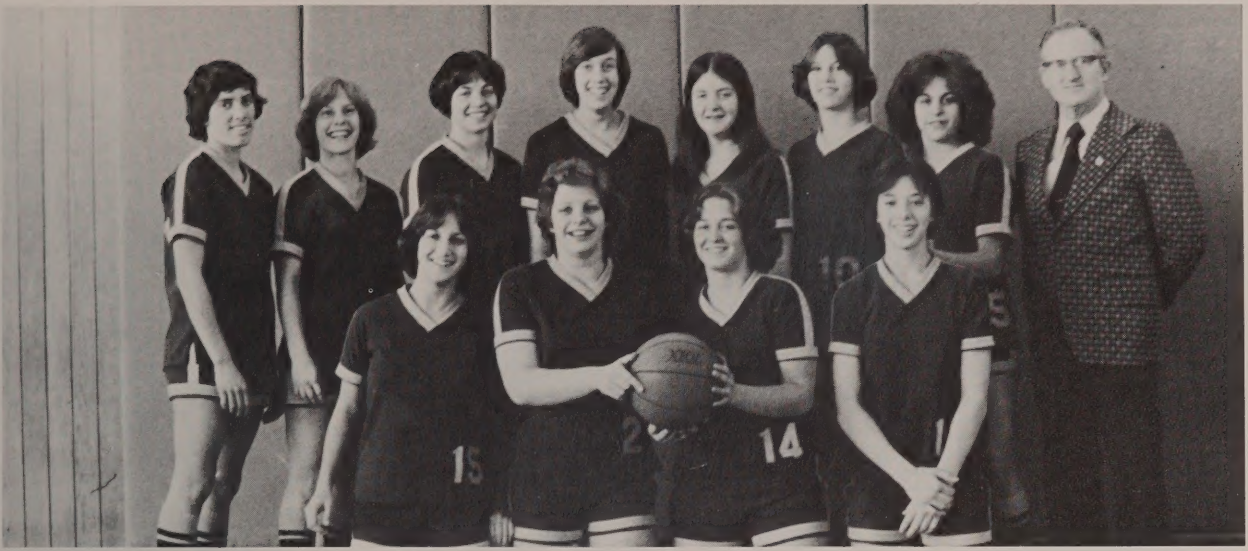
GIRLS J.V. BASKETBALL



Standing from left to right: T. McKenna, M. Crory, E. Sahr, M. Tierney, L. Borda, J. Petkewich. Kneeling: C. Ursch, Y. Leblanc, K. Gruskowski, B. Scott, K. Brown, M. Burke. Coach: Mrs. McManus.

This winter the girls' J.V. Basketball team had an encouraging season. As the girls adjusted to the new experience, they gained knowledge and skill. Under the coaching expertise of Mrs. McManus, the team managed to win all but their last game. The team's desire to win and its spirit is evident in all their games. The team is looking forward to next year with hopes of improvement and success.

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL



Standing from left to right: D. Tierney, K. Basnett, C. Burke, B. Patterson, K. Trainor, S. Hansen, A. Gaspari. Kneeling: S. Dupree, K. Merz, S. Lewis, M. Girard. Missing: Valerie Johnson. Coach: Mr. Silva.

The girls' Varsity Basketball team had one of its best seasons yet. With a combination of skill, talent, and spirit the girls won 14 games and lost only a few times. Most of the girls collected a lot of points. All the girls had a lot of fun. The team captains were Sandy Lewis and Kathy Merz.

BOYS FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The boys Freshman Basketball team had a hard but well-played season. They did not win too many games, but they exerted a lot of effort. The boys had a large quantity of spirit and were willing to learn. Next year the team is concentrating on general improvement and success.

The girls Freshman Basketball team had a fairly good season with a record of 8-5. Beth Cook led off the scoring. The team had a lot of spirit and verve. Next season the team is striving for improvement on offense.

GIRLS FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

BOYS J.V. BASKETBALL

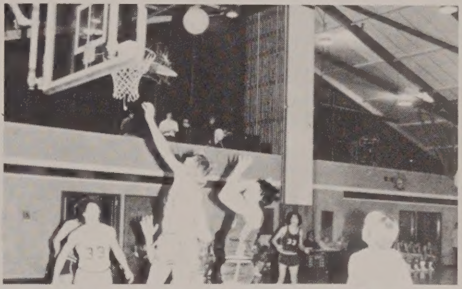
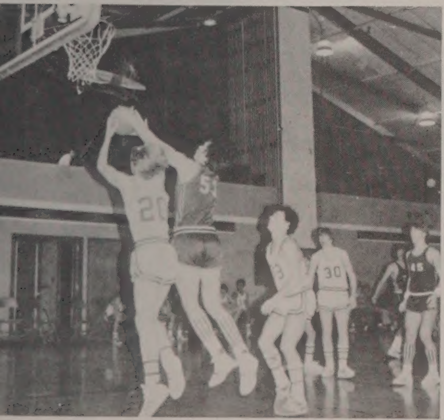
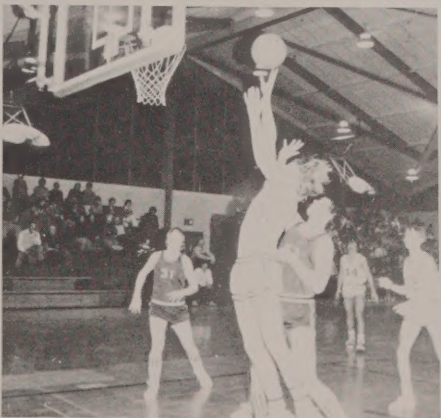
The boys J.V. Basketball team had a pretty good season this year. The team won most of its games, but the injury of Dickie LaRosee hurt the team. But despite the numerous injuries, the team managed a good measure of success. Next year the team is looking forward to more improvement and less injuries.







Boys Varsity Basketball

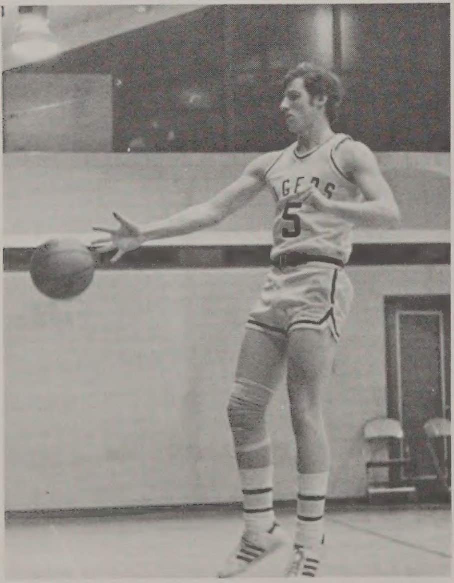
This season our Varsity Basketball team had an excellent record of 14-5. The team made the States and also competed in the Clark Tournament. The team made great strides in improvement over the years. In the Senior boys' sophomore year the team did not win one game, but in the following years the team improved their record to 14 wins. The top point-getter was Joe Donelan with 319 pts., followed by Rick Ethier with 224 pts., Kent Romilly with 211 pts., Chris Carmosino with 207 pts., and Rich Mague with 75 pts. The team captains were Joe Donelan and Chris Carmosino.



"Hey wait! That was supposed to go up!"

"Oh my Lord! Will you look at that?"

"Oh, what a day!"

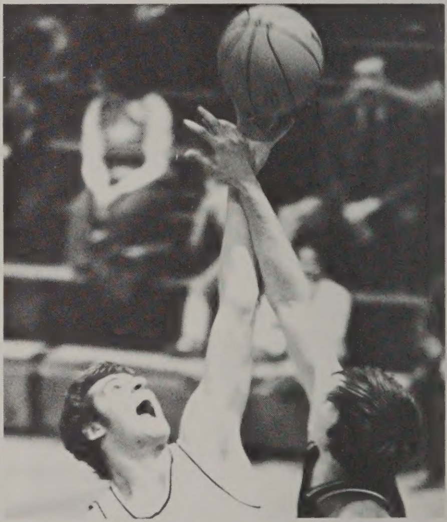
"Kill that worm!"

"Wait a minute boys. I was just kidding."

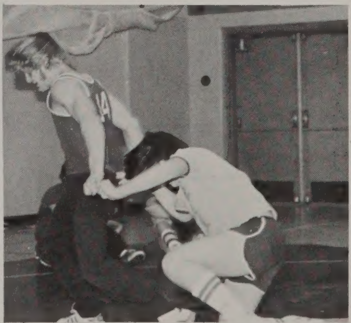
"How the devil did that thing get in here?"

"That thing's got a hold of my pigtail!"

"No way am I sticking around here to get killed."



"Boy, would I like to sink my teeth into that basketball!"



"I wanna hold your hand."

"And why'd I have to get so tired last night?"

Last spring our tennis team had one of its best seasons with a 16-0 record. The expert coaching of Mr. Webster combined with four years of hard work and spirit by the team paid off as they won the Wachusett League Championship. The team had to combat not only their tenacious opponents but organizational difficulties also. On the whole the team deserves a lot of credit for their achievements.

The Varsity baseball team had a fairly good season. The long rides with Paul Crory and his C.B. and his salamander and elephant jokes kept the team in good spirits. And last year the team had one of its most enjoyable victories against Mr. McKenna's rival, Quabbin. The team's losing only two of its players should not affect the team's prospects for a good season.

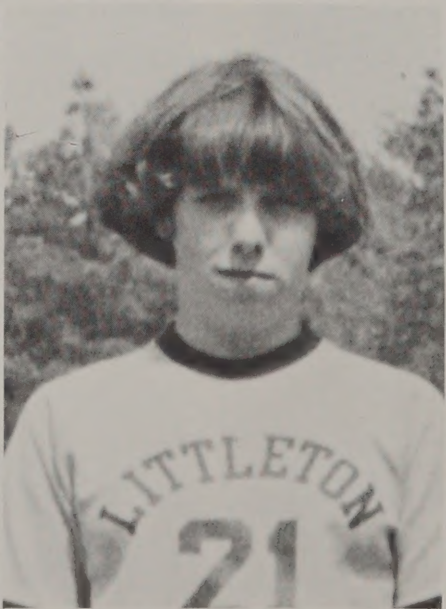
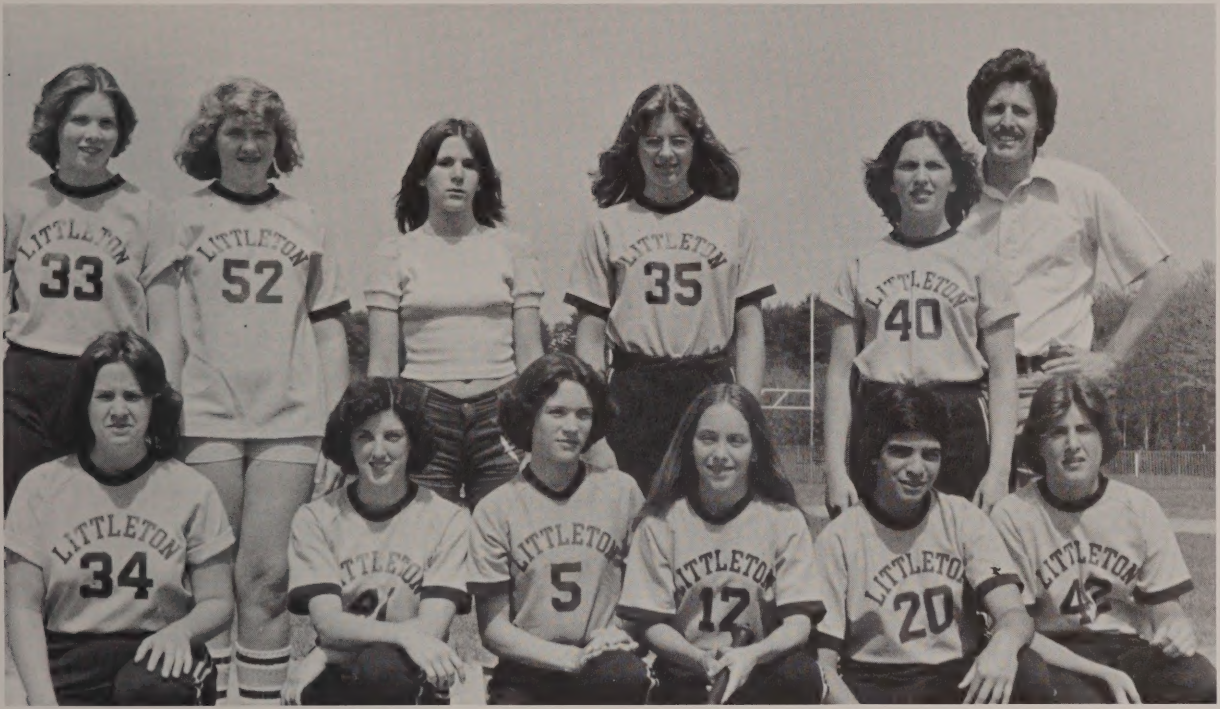
The Varsity softball team, coached by Mr. Michaud, had a relatively good season last spring. The team had a lot of spirit, and these feelings were evident in all the games the team played. Even when they lost a few games, the team did not lose their bouyant spirits. Good sportsmanship and an aura of fun accompanied the girls to every game. This spring the team is looking forward to a more fulfilling and successful season.



J.V. SOFTBALL



Left to right in back row: T. Graham, W. Osborne, D. Rouille, L. Borda, A. Caiado. Front row: J. Kalkert, S. Butterworth, C. Banks, C. Patnaude, L. Marchi, and A. Cadden. Coach: Mr. Hallowell.

The Junior Varsity softball team, guided by their coach, Mr. Hallowell, battled against their opposition last spring. The team was composed of mostly freshmen, and for them the games were an exciting and new experience. The team made a lot of mistakes, but success is only obtained through hard work and mistakes. Hopefully, this new spring season will hold for the J.V.'s excitement and success.
